10 best avant-garde fashion graduate outfits of 2018

AVANT-GARDE DESIGNERS / 5:38:00 PM

Waiting the upcoming New Year, take a look to the most cutting-edge creations of 2018 and discover the graduate collections of young designers coming from the best international fashion schools and academies.

2018 is ending and there are great expectations for the upcoming New Year. There will be new Graduate Fashion Weeks widespread almost everywhere in the globe, with new talents that are waiting to emerge under the spotlight of fashion mass media, with new creations that will surprise us for innovation and unbridled fantasy.

To celebrate what will be new in fashion and the future designers of tomorrow, I'd like to look backwards to this year finding the best Avant-garde outfits and collections created by the young pioneers of fashion design.

Who is your favorite young designer of 2018?

BENEDETTA TENAN

The world seen through the eyes of a child, able to transform the reality through fantasy, is the leitmotiv of "The Elephant and the Snake" by BENEDETTA TENAN, one of the most genuine talent coming from Istituto Secoli (Italy). Inspired by a book written by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, this graduate collection re-assemble objects of the everyday life with a fancy spirit. The collection was recently awarded with the "Jury's Mention" at the 25th edition of the contest International Lab of Mittelmoda and participated at Fashion Graduate Italia 2018.
